What is Community and Leadership Development at the University of Kentucky?

"CLD is a multidisciplinary science degree program focused on facilitating leadership and development tendencies in students and faculty. Students gain knowledge in psychology, sociology, communications, journalism, grant writing, and most importantly, human interaction. Students learn and teach."

- Mercedes Maness, CLD Junior

REQUIRED COURSES

- CLD 300 - Foundational Theories in CLD
- CLD 305 - Research Methods
- CLD 362 - Field Experience
- CLD 370 - Learning in Society
- CLD 490 - Senior Seminar
- CLD 497 - Professional Practicum in CLD

I want to work in communities and to be an ally, friend, member, and leader. One of my biggest passions is social justice (social change), and I wanted the tools to create those changes.

- Cari Caudill, CLD Senior

Earn a Bachelor of Science degree emphasizing a unique theory-to-practice perspective
CAREERS WITH CLD

Non-profit Organizations
General Business
Politics
Community Education
Public Relations & Marketing
Higher Education
Community Development
Government Agencies
Food & Sustainability
Agriculture

VISIT US

Community and Leadership Development
500 Garrigus Building
Lexington, KY 40546
Phone: (859) 257-7579
Fax: (859) 257-1164

Dr. Keiko Tanaka
Director of Undergraduate Studies, CLD
(859) 257-7574 | ktanaka@uky.edu

John C. Hill
Academic Coordinator
(859) 257-3767 | JohnCHill@uky.edu

@UKCLD on Facebook, Instagram & Twitter
www.uky.edu/cld

Community & Leadership Development

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
An Equal Opportunity University